The Superintendency of Securities modifies deadlines for the submission of quarterly financial statements

Through Resolution SV. SG. No. 04/25, dated March 6, 2025, the Superintendency of Securities ("SIV") amended Article 3, Chapter 9, Title 19 of the General Regulations of the Securities Market, establishing new deadlines for the submission of quarterly financial statements by management companies and investment funds.

With this amendment, management companies and investment funds must submit to SIV the financial statements of the management company and each fund they manage within 45 days after the end of each quarter, covering the following periods: (i) from January 1 to March 31; (ii) from January 1 to June 30; and (iii) from January 1 to September 30.
